

A Christmas Carol Mad Libs

Ebenezer Scrooge was a _____ (adjective) miser who lived in _____ (historic era) England. One _____ (adjective) night, Scrooge was visited by _____ (number) ghosts who wanted to teach him a lesson. When the first ghost arrived, Scrooge cried, "Who, and what, are you?" "I am the Ghost of Christmas _____ (plural noun)!" Scrooge and the ghost went back in time to a party where they watched the guests play _____ (game). Next, the Ghost of Christmas _____ (plural noun) showed up and brought Scrooge to another party just in time to hear _____ (name of person in room) call Scrooge a _____ (adjective) _____ (noun). Finally, the Ghost of Christmas _____ (plural noun) appeared and brought Scrooge to _____ (place), where he learned that it's important to _____ (verb). Scrooge was so happy, he sent a _____ (type of bird) to his employee _____'s (name of person in room) house. Scrooge was invited for Christmas dinner and as everyone gathered around the flaming _____ (noun), they raised their glasses of _____ (beverage) and _____ (adjective) Tim said, "God bless us, everyone!"
